

Bausch + Lomb ULTRA® for Astigmatism Contact Lenses Introduced

March 30, 2017

Innovative Toric Lens Delivers All-Day Comfort and Consistently Clear Vision¹

LAVAL, Quebec, March 30, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc.'s (NYSE: VRX and TSX: VRX) wholly owned subsidiary, Bausch + Lomb, today announced the launch of Bausch + Lomb ULTRA® for Astigmatism contact lenses, an innovative monthly silicone hydrogel lens that combines MoistureSeal® technology, which helps to maintain 95% of lens moisture for a full 16 hours², and OpticAlign™ design, engineered for stability to promote a successful first fit¹.

This latest offering advances the family of Bausch + Lomb ULTRA® contact lens products, providing astigmatic patients the same all-day comfort and consistently clear vision¹ that spherical and presbyopic patients experience with Bausch + Lomb ULTRA® and Bausch + Lomb ULTRA® for Presbyopia contact lenses today.

"We are pleased to add to our 2017 product launches with Bausch + Lomb ULTRA® for Astigmatism contact lenses to our portfolio of innovative monthly Bausch + Lomb ULTRA® products," said Joseph C. Papa, Chairman and CEO of Valeant. "We have invested in additional contact lens lines at our facilities in Rochester, New York, and in Waterford, Ireland. The added capacity enables us to meet the worldwide demand for our contact lens portfolio, including this new lens, the latest in toric contact lens technology."

Valeant has invested more than $200M in the Bausch + Lomb Rochester facility to support the expansion and installation of new manufacturing lines to produce the Bausch + Lomb ULTRA® contact lenses. Bausch + Lomb has also initiated the hiring of approximately 120 new employees for jobs related to the manufacturing lines, which include operators, engineers, lab technicians and other professional-level positions. The hiring will continue through 2017 until all lines are complete.
